To: The Editorial Board of the Journal of Community Medicine

My name is:

Affiliation/Workplace address:

I hereby submit the manuscript for publication in the Journal of Community Medicine entitled:

By the author group (please write the full names of all participating authors):
.....

As the authorized representative of the above author group, I hereby make the following commitments:

1. Originality and Scientific Integrity

- This article is a research study/clinical case report conducted directly by us, based on accurate data that were collected and analyzed honestly.
- The manuscript is an original work that has not been published, in whole or in part, in any other journal, and is not currently under consideration by any other publication.
- There has been no plagiarism, fabrication, falsification, or unauthorized copying of data.

2. Authorship and Individual Responsibilities

- All listed authors meet the four authorship criteria of the ICMJE:
 1. Made substantial contributions to the conception or design of the study; or to the acquisition, analysis, or interpretation of data.
 2. Participated in drafting or critically revising the manuscript.
 3. Reviewed and approved the final version of the manuscript.
 4. Agreed to be fully accountable for the academic content and to ensure the accuracy and integrity of the work.
- There is no “gift authorship,” and no deserving author has been excluded.
- The list of authors is accurate and has been agreed upon by all co-authors.

3. Conflicts of Interest and Funding

- We have fully disclosed all personal, financial, and academic conflicts of interest, if any.
- All sources of research funding, technical support, equipment, and pharmaceutical support, if any, have been transparently acknowledged in the “Acknowledgements” or “Funding” section of the article.
- If there are no conflicts of interest or funding, we clearly state: “The authors declare no conflicts of interest and no funding was received.”

4. Research Ethics and Patient Consent

- The research complies with the 2013 Declaration of Helsinki, national regulations, and international ethical standards for biomedical research.
- Approved by the Institutional Review Board/Ethics Committee (IRB/IEC) (if applicable). Approval number:
- For clinical case reports: we confirm that written informed consent for publication has been obtained and signed by the patient or legally authorized representative.
- Patient images, if any, have been anonymized to ensure that the patient's identity is not disclosed.

5. Copyright and Publication Rights

- We agree to transfer copyright or comply with the Open Access conditions (Creative Commons license) in accordance with the Journal's policies.
- This manuscript does not infringe any third-party intellectual property rights, image copyrights, or data rights. If images or materials from other sources have been used, we have obtained the necessary legal permissions.

6. Legal Commitment

- We accept full legal responsibility for the content of the article, the accuracy of the data, the conclusions, and any copyright or ethical violations, if any.
- We understand that the Journal has the right to reject or retract the article if academic misconduct is identified, regardless of whether the article has already been published.

7. Consent of All Authors

We confirm that:

- All co-authors have read and agreed to the content of the final manuscript.
- All co-authors agree to submit this article to the Journal of Community Medicine.
- There are no disputes concerning authorship.
